DETAILED ACTION

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claims 7-17 been renumbered 6-16.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 8 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 8 and 13, line 2, it is not clear how the pocket can be flexible and generally inelastic. The term flexible is defined as being elastic, which is a contradiction to the term inelastic.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-7, 9-12 and 14-16 are allowed.

5. Claims 8 and 13 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a nonobvious improvement over the cited prior art used separately or together. The improvement comprises a book-marking device having the combination of a pocket having a pocket length extending approximately the length of the cover of the book to be used with the book-marking device, a plurality of ribbons attached to the pocket used to mark a plurality of locations inside of the book, an elastic strap extending from a first end of the pocket and a connector being attached to the pocket at a location near the second end of the pocket and including all of the other claimed limitations as set forth in the independent claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited references disclose bookmarks.
